

Paying Wayfaring Walks by Interac

Interac e-Transfer is an easy way to send, request, and receive money.

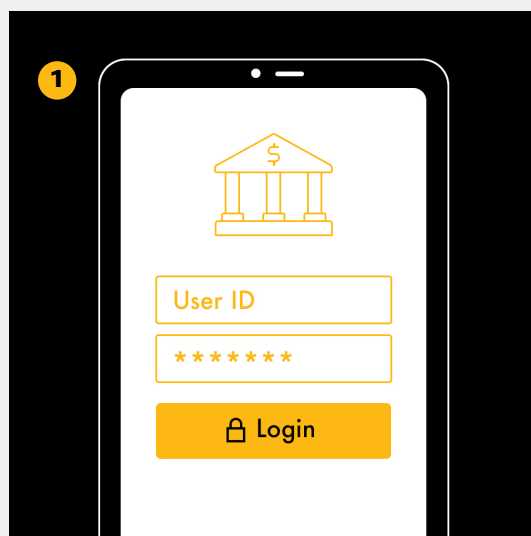

With so many uses, including sending money to a friend, splitting a bill, sending money as a gift, and even paying a business, Interac e-Transfer makes using your money more convenient.

Sending money to us by Interac e-Transfer can be completed in 5 easy steps.

Before you start, you'll need:

- A Canadian bank account with a participating financial institution
- Access to your online banking through your financial institution (find out more)
- The email address of Wayfaring Walks: payments@wayfaringwalks.com

Sign into your financial institution's online banking service

Select the account that you will be sending the funds from

NB User screens displayed are for illustrative purposes only, appearance will differ based on the participating financial institution. Consult your financial institution for more information.

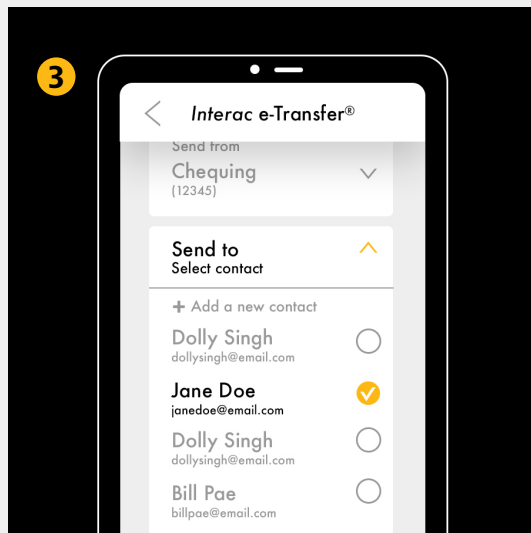

Choose the recipient

Wayfaring Walks have a Canadian Bank Account and are registered for Autodeposit.

The first time you are sending us money, you have to add us to your list of recipients using our email address:

payments@wayfaringwalks.com

be sure to verify these details are correct.

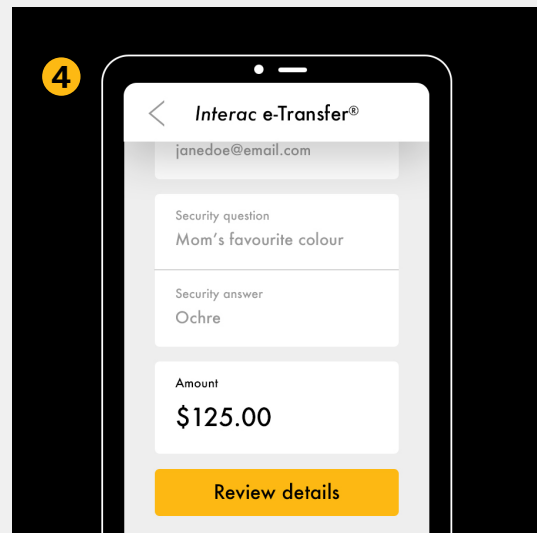

Enter the amount you wish to send

Transaction limits are set by your financial institution and are typically $2,000 to $3,000 per transaction*.

Please contact your financial institution for more information.

* If your transaction limit is less than the total sum, please split the total up into multiple payments.

Confirm the details before sending

This includes adding a message within the memo field, which in our case, is your Family Name.

? If you have additional questions about using Interac, click here for more details from their website